Further

Specialist, innovative solutions to provide your people with world-class, end-to-end care for serious illnesses and complex conditions

● MetLife and AXA in partnership

Access to inclusive healthcare should be universal. But unfortunately, it isn't. Every country has a different healthcare system, with varying levels of quality and availability, meaning access to treatment could be a geographic lottery for your people and their loved ones. This is where you can step in and help provide access to the best care possible, regardless of your employees' location.

And coming out of a pandemic that disrupted healthcare services and left many people without timely access to treatment, it's more important than ever before for multinationals to re-evaluate their healthcare benefits. Employees want healthcare coverage that is designed to help them get the best treatment in the world, should the worst happen.

To help your people access the latest treatments, technologies and best-in-class international medical expertise, we've partnered with Further, experts in multi-market, specialised health insurance products and service solutions for serious illnesses.

As a MAXIS client, you can work with Further and benefit from their two flagship solutions: Critical Advantage and Precision CancerCare to offer your people access to cutting-edge solutions in complex areas of healthcare which combine the latest treatments and technologies with best-in-class international medical expertise.

What solutions do Further provide?

Critical Advantage®

Critical Advantage breaks down geographic and financial barriers to give people facing a serious illness choice and freedom when it comes to deciding how and where they are treated.

From treatment, to travel and accommodation, Further covers and organises all bookings, arrangements, and payments, guiding and supporting your people throughout their entire treatment journey.

Critical Advantage is available globally, meaning no matter where they live, your people can have access to the best international care.

Key benefits to Critical Advantage include:

- no deductibles or upfront payments
- access to treatment at world-leading hospitals abroad
- uniform health benefit for all
- one provider, multiple locations
- centralised reporting and account management
- 100% reinsurable to MAXIS global programmes.

Critical Advantage covers:

- Cancer treatment
- Neurosurgery
- Coronary artery by-pass surgery
- Heart valve replacement and repair
- Live organ donor and tissue transplant

Precision CancerCare™

An employee benefit at the spearhead of medical advances in cancer treatment, Precision CancerCare uses precision medicine molecular profiling testing to better diagnose cancer and recommend a treatment plan that is personalized to each individual tumor, based on the patient's genomic make-up.

Where the molecular profiling analysis detects a heredity mutation which can be passed on to family members, direct family members will also be tested, and, if positive, a session can be arranged with a genetic counsellor.

Through Further's Precision CancerCare+™ solution, if the best recommended treatment is not available locally, or the patient wishes to seek treatment in a center of excellence abroad, Further will arrange end-to-end treatment overseas in world-leading cancer facilities and will take care of all travel arrangements and costs.

Who is Further Group?

Further Group is a global leader in the design and development of multimarket, specialised health insurance products and service solutions. Their mission is to give more people the opportunity to access the very best healthcare for serious illnesses and conditions.

Further provides access to its products through over 300 corporations worldwide, a mix of leading international insurers and large multinational employers, has a presence in over 30 countries spanning multiple continents, and has in excess of 3.5 million members.

Why should you work with Further?

A serious illness is one of the toughest things your employees could face in their lifetime. Further specializes in providing the providing choice and access to the best treatment options available and holds their hand to guide them through their journey.

Further helps your employees decide where and when to be treated, based on their specific condition and preferences. They remove the healthcare barriers and the burden of accessing, arranging and paying for out-of-country treatment, travel and accommodation.

Further helps your employees have:

- simple and global access to care
- no financial barriers
- choice
- a dedicated support team.

Further ensures that your investment in your employees provides peace of mind and offers choice and excellence in healthcare. And it allows you to offer an equitable benefit for your people, no matter where they live.

Because life matters most.
